

Jennifer Espronceda
Jennifer@EsproncedaLaw.com

March 17, 2020

To our Clients and Potential Clients,

At Espronceda Law, we know that your need for effective legal representation remains even as the COVID-19 pandemic crisis is disrupting our lives and businesses. While your health and safety remain our highest priority, our team is committed to using technology and other resources to ensure we continue to provide you unparalleled service and support.

To do our part in discouraging the spread of the COVID-19 virus, most of our team members are working remotely for now. This means that in-person consultations will only occur if absolutely necessary, such as for an emergency court hearing.

Meanwhile, if you have access to the internet, we have numerous options to interact with you and continue to serve your legal needs.

Videoconference. If you have a laptop and camera, we can meet by videoconference. We can even help you install and set up Zoom on your computer.

Document sharing. We can easily share documents with you through a web interface that costs you nothing to access or use. Again, we are happy to walk you through the process of setting up and using the program on your computer.

Teleconference. Even if you do not have access to a computer or the internet, you can always reach us by telephone. We will work with you to ensure that all necessary forms and documents are exchanged in a safe and efficient manner.

During the COVID-19 event, you can reach us as always at (assistant@esproncedalaw.com), 210-504-1514, or through Facebook messenger. You can also visit our website at (www.alamodivorcelawyer.com).

Respectfully,

Jennifer Espronceda
Jennifer Espronceda